

A black and white line drawing of a landscape. At the top center is a large sun with many rays extending outwards. Below the sun, the text "Whenever I am afraid, I will TRUST in YOU." is written in a stylized font. The word "TRUST" is in all caps and "YOU" is also in all caps. Below the text, there are mountains and a river. The river flows from the right side towards the left. There are several trees, including a large evergreen on the left and smaller ones scattered throughout the landscape. The foreground is filled with rocks and some grass.

Whenever I am afraid,
I will TRUST in YOU.
